DEDICATION

One of the great failures of our modern training of teachers is that they become mere technicians; but the role of a teacher must be much more than that. The highest function of the teacher not only consists of imparting knowledge to the student, but in kindling minds and stimulating the student to love and pursue knowledge. Sister Helen Champagne even went beyond this. She not only awakened interests and sparked enthusiasm, but that which she taught best and most was Christian values. These she taught by the spoken word, and even more by her own example.

The only way a teacher and friend like Sister Helen can be repaid is to use the knowledge she has imparted, to pursue the goals she has shown, and to live by the values she has held before us.

We thank you, Sister Helen, for the knowledge and the wisdom you have left with us.

CLASS SONG

There are places I'll remember all my life
though some have changed,
some forever, not for better
some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments, with lovers and friends
I still can recall,
some are dead and some are living,
in my life I've loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers,
there is no one compares with you,
and these mem'ries lose their meaning,
when I think of love as something new,
though I know I'll never lose affection
for people and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I'll love you more.
